

When the driver's eyes are detected as closed, a timer will start counting. If the eyes remain closed for more than 10 seconds, an alarm will activate to alert the driver!

The timer will start decreasing once the driver returns to an active state, i.e., when their eyes are open.

